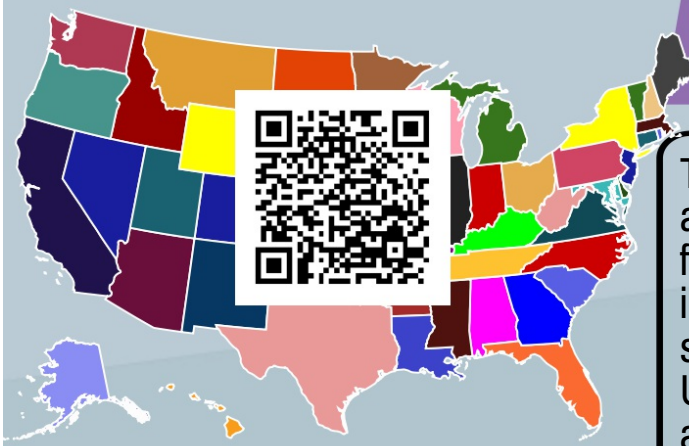
Global UGRAD

What is it ?

Global Undergraduate Exchange Program



Description

The Global UGRAD Program is a semester-long academic exchange program in which students from over 60 countries study at various universities in the United States. It is an opportunity for students to experience academic and social life on U.S. campuses, strengthen their leadership skills, and gain a greater global perspective.

World Learning
Education | Development | Exchange

Eligibility

Must have finished at least 1 semester of college
Must have 1+ semester(s) remaining upon return
Must be 18+ in age at time of program start
Must be enrolled full time in home country
Must have adequate English skills
Cannot be a U.S. citizen, including dual citizenship
Students with disabilities are encouraged to apply

Learn More & Apply

www.worldlearning.org/ugrad

Deadline: 5:00pm EST December 31st, 2016

Study in the United States

Build a Network

Meet New People

Develop New Skills

Funded by the U.S. Department of State and administered by World Learning